REPLACE COPY - DO NOT DESTROY

Here is an announcement of interest to all the record fans and in fact, every Yale Undergraduate. This week WOCD is beginning a new feature on the program entitled "Barrelhouse, Boogie, and Blues". Each Monday, Wednesday and Friday a record will be given away absolutely free to the lucky fellow who can guess the orchestra playing the "mystrey tune" on the program. All you have to do is go to a phone and call in your selection or bring it over to the station in the News Building as soon as possible. A record will be given to the first man to call in the right orchestra and also to the first one to bring it in. The lucky winners will be given their choice of any new regular priced record they pick out. So be sure and have your dial set at 640 at 9:30 each Monday, Wednesday and Friday for "Barrelhouse, Boogie and Blues". And remember, the first fellow to solve the "Mystry² tune", either by phone or by coming to the station, wins a free record. So listen tonight at 9:30. See who will win the record. Will it be you?
